

Marriott Vacations Worldwide Announces Pricing of Convertible Senior Notes

Dec 5, 2022

ORLANDO, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 5, 2022-- Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation (NYSE: VAC) (the "Company," "we," "us" or "our") announced today the pricing of the offering of $500 million in aggregate principal amount of 3.25% convertible senior notes due 2027 (the "Notes") in a private offering (the "Offering") to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The Company also granted to the initial purchasers of the Notes (the "Initial Purchasers") an option to purchase up to an additional $75 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes for settlement within a 13-day period beginning on, and including, the initial closing date. The offering of the Notes, and the convertible hedge and warrant transactions described below, are expected to close on December 8, 2022, subject to customary closing conditions.

The Company expects to use the net proceeds from the Offering to pay the cost of the convertible note hedge transactions described below (after such cost is partially offset by the proceeds to the Company from the warrant transactions described below). The Company expects to use the remainder of the net proceeds from the Offering to (i) redeem all of Marriott Ownership Resorts, Inc.'s outstanding 6.125% Senior Secured Notes due 2025 (the "2025 Secured Notes") at a redemption price equal to 103.063% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the redemption date, (ii) repay a portion of the outstanding borrowings under its revolving credit facility, (iii) repurchase approximately 0.384 million shares of its common stock concurrently with the pricing of this offering in privately negotiated transactions effected through one or more of the Initial Purchasers and/or their respective affiliates, as agent, at a price per share equal to $143.13 and (iv) pay fees, premiums and expenses in connection with the foregoing. This press release does not constitute a notice of redemption with respect to the 2025 Secured Notes.

The Notes will be the Company's senior unsecured obligations and guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by Marriott Ownership Resorts, Inc. and each of the Company's subsidiaries that guarantees the Company's existing corporate credit facility and senior notes. The Notes will bear interest at 3.25% per year. Interest will accrue from December 8, 2022 and will be payable semiannually in arrears on June 15 and December 15 of each year, beginning on June 15, 2023. The Notes will mature on December 15, 2027, unless earlier redeemed, repurchased or converted (the "Maturity Date"). The initial conversion rate for the Notes is 5.2729 shares of the Company's common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes (equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $189.65 per share of the Company's common stock), which represents an approximately 32.5% conversion premium over the last reported sale price of $143.13 per share of the Company's common stock on The New York Stock Exchange on December 5, 2022.

Prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding September 15, 2027, the Notes will be convertible in multiples of $1,000 principal amount, only upon satisfaction of certain conditions and during certain periods, and thereafter, at any time until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the Maturity Date. The Company will satisfy any conversion elections by paying and/or delivering, as the case may be, cash, shares of its common stock or a combination of cash and shares of its common stock, at its election.

In connection with the pricing of the Notes, the Company has entered into privately negotiated convertible note hedge transactions with certain of the Initial Purchasers and/or their respective affiliates and/or other financial institutions (the "Hedge Counterparties"). These transactions will initially cover, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments substantially similar to those applicable to the Notes, the same number of shares of the Company's common stock that will initially underlie the Notes and are expected generally to reduce the potential dilution to the Company's common stock and/or offset potential cash payments the Company is required to make in excess of the principal amount of converted Notes, in each case, upon any conversion of the Notes. Concurrently with entry into the convertible note hedge transactions, the Company has also entered into warrant transactions with the Hedge Counterparties relating to the same number of shares of the Company's common stock, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments. The strike price of the warrant transactions will initially be $286.26 per share, which represents a 100% premium to the last reported sale price of the Company's common stock on The New York Stock Exchange on December 5, 2022. These warrant transactions could separately have a dilutive effect on the Company's common stock to the extent that the market price per share of the Company's common stock exceeds the applicable strike price of the warrants on one or more of the applicable expiration dates.

If the Initial Purchasers exercise their option to purchase additional Notes, the Company may sell additional warrants and may use a portion of the proceeds from the sale of such additional Notes, together with the proceeds from the sale of additional warrants, to enter into additional convertible note hedge transactions.

In connection with establishing their initial hedges of the convertible note hedge and warrant transactions, the Hedge Counterparties (and/or their respective affiliates) have advised the Company that they expect to purchase shares of the Company's common stock in secondary market transactions and/or enter into various derivative transactions with respect to the Company's common stock concurrently with or shortly after the pricing of the Notes, including with certain investors in the Notes, and may unwind these derivative transactions and purchase shares of the Company's common stock shortly after the pricing of the Notes. This activity could increase (or reduce the size of any decrease in) the market price of the Company's common stock or the Notes at that time.

In addition, the Hedge Counterparties (and/or their respective affiliates) may modify their hedge positions by entering into or unwinding various derivatives with respect to the Company's common stock and/or purchasing or selling the Company's common stock in secondary market transactions following the pricing of the Notes and prior to maturity of the Notes (and are likely to do so following conversion of the Notes, during any observation period related to a conversion of Notes or upon any repurchase or redemption of Notes). These hedging activities could have the effect of increasing (or reducing the size of any decrease in) the market price of the Company's common stock or the Notes.

The concurrent repurchases of shares of the Company's common stock described above may have resulted in the common stock trading at prices that are higher than would be the case in the absence of these repurchases, which may have resulted in a higher initial conversion price for the Notes being offered.

The offer and sale of the Notes and the common stock issuable upon conversion, if any, have not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements.
